Each key on the module is assigned a letter, and when pressed, the keys will give you two clues:

- One clue is the letter that is assigned to the key.
- The other clue is a letter that is used in the keyword.
- However, five of the keys do not play the normal piano sound. The second clue of these keys are actually letters that are NOT used in the keyword.
- One of keys will only have one letter as a clue. This letter is the one assigned to this key.
- The clues are shown in a random order.

To solve the module, first enter in the three piano notes shown on the initial screen to enter the module into submission mode, then enter the letters used in the keyword in an order that forms a valid word. Entering a wrong answer will result in a strike.
